Coach Notes

This was an important match for us. We came of an mental loss to Maple Grove and Elk River and we needed to prove to ourselves that we could find the finish line. Becker always has a talented team. We were much more consistent in our efforts tonight. I am still frustrated with serving errors--just to many per match and too many at crucial moments. We finally got our middles some play! We changed our defensive scheme a bit and it really paid off. We have the right people touching the ball in the right situations. I am very proud of the girls---Becker came at us in game 3 and 4 and we pushed through. That was our goal for the night---and I am all about achieving goals. We are headed for a tough weekend in Marshall--but we are looking forward to the challenge! Coach Theresa Brummer
