Coach Notes

Last night was a much needed win. We are still not where we need to be--we still need tougher mental play. However, it has been a busy homecoming week for the Royals and I appreciate the girls showing up and taking care of business.

Marika Paumen continues to be an offensive and defensive force. Abby Ellis and Shannon Larson ran the offense last night and did a very effective job. Abby continues to be one of our most consistent players. Cassey Paja had a good night on the outside--when she is on she really rounds out our offense. We have eleven players on our team that are consistently improving and can be played in various positions based on our needs--makes life a little easier.

Carly LeClaire and Danica Reitzner played a great back row for us--lets not forget it all starts with a pass!

We are looking forward to a tough weekend at the Sauk Rapids tournament.
