Coach Notes

We seem to be making it hard on ourselves. We miss crucial moment opportunities. We need to be smarter about putting the ball away. We are making to many errors. We need to really pick up our game these next three matches. I appreciated that we are getting the win--but I am not totally satisfied with the substance of our play. I don't think the players are either. The best things is that they are not folding under pressure. Cassey Paja had a good night on the outside. Shannon Larson had a great mix on sets. Marika Paumen stepped up again and put the ball away when needed. Danica Reitzner has been doing an amazing job for us from the serving line and defensively---the kids love having her in the backcourt!! It was a big conference win for us---it put us in contention for the top spots in the conference. We need to clean up our game and create opportunities---the remainder of the week is non-conference with Spring Lake Park and Mounds View. We end our conference play with Big Lake---which will be a very big game for the Royals.
